On January 29, 2020 at approximately 10:40 p.m. deputies assigned to the Winnebago County Sheriff's Police Tactical Team attempted to conduct a traffic stop on a silver Chrysler Pacifica near the intersection of Loomis and Central in Rockford. During the stop, the driver got out of the vehicle and ran inside a nearby residence. Deputies chased the driver on foot and encountered an occupant of the residence identified as Jessica Driscoll. Driscoll was arrested on an outstanding arrest warrant from Boone County for a violation of the controlled substances act.

The driver of the Pacifica, identified as Scott Bradley, was later arrested by sheriff's deputies as he left the residence and tried to enter a second car that had arrived at the residence and was parked in the driveway. Bradley was found in possession of cocaine and heroin. Bradley was charged with 2 counts of possession of a controlled substance and 1 count of obstructing a peace officer and lodged in the Winnebago County jail.
