Over the past months, the Winnebago County Sheriff's Police received information from the community regarding a subject dealing narcotics in the Rockford area. During this investigation, Sheriff's Police identified Cory L. Colquett as the suspect.

On Friday, February 4, 2022, the Winnebago County Sheriff's Police Narcotic's Unit concluded their investigation into Cory Colquett. Colquett was taken into custody in the 3300 block of N. Alpine and found to be in possession of over 100 grams of Fentanyl, as well as United States Currency.

The Winnebago County State's Attorney's Office reviewed the facts of this case and authorized the following charges:

Cory L. Colquett (DOB: 01/18/1992) of Rockford, IL

1 count of possession with intent to deliver 100-400 grams of Fentanyl. Class X Felony

1 county of resisting an officer. Class A Misdemeanor

The charges against Cory Colquett are merely accusations and he is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
