Winnebago County Sheriff's Police Investigate Serious Injury Accident

On July 16, 2020, at approximately 10:30am, Winnebago County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the 2600 Block of Wendy Lane after a report that a pedestrian had been struck by a vehicle. Upon arrival, Deputies discovered that a three year old male had been struck. The child was subsequently transported to a Rockford hospital with life threatening injuries. During the preliminary investigation it was determined that the child was struck by the driver of a minivan traveling south on Wendy Lane. The driver remained on scene.

The Winnebago County Sheriff's Department is conducting the investigation. No further details will be released at this time.
